PRESENT FLAG TO HOSPITAL ON THURSDAY

The Warner Hospital was presented Thursday night with a 34-starred flag of the type flown here in Civil War days in recognition of the hospitals established here during and after the Battle of Gettysburg.

E. Donald Scott, president of the Adams County commissioners, made the presentation to Walter Dillon, administrator of the hospital, at a ceremony held on the lawn in front of the institution.

J. Melchior Sheads, head of the history department at Gettysburg High School and local historian, principal speaker at the program, said:

"It is most fitting that a Civil War flag should be presented to the Annie M. Warner Hospital as a part of Adams County's Centennial observance of the Civil War, since the mother of a former physician, the late Dr. Henry Stewart, who himself was associated with this excellent institution from the early days of its founding until his death, was in a sense a local Clara Barton in her tender care of the wounded after the Battle of Gettysburg."

NEEDED HOSPITALS

"If ever a community needed a hospital desperately, it was this little town of 2,400 inhabitants called Gettysburg after the most decisive battle of the Civil War had been fought here on July 1, 2 and 3, 1863. In fact the entire community of Gettysburg and vicinity became one vast hospital, with all public buildings occupied and most of the private homes given over to the care of the wounded and dying."

"The Battle of Gettysburg was the most momentous battle of the Civil War, not only in the strategic (Continued On Page 3)

The other parade engagements include: Woodsboro, June 26; Gettysburg, July 4; McConnellsburg, July 19; Thurmont, August 2, and Littlestown, August 11. Except for the two veterans' convention parades, all of the other events are firemen-sponsored.

7 Plastic Bombs Blast Big Hospital In Algiers

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
ALGIERS (AP)—Seven plastic bombs heavily damaged the central laboratory of Algiers' vast Mustapha Hospital today in the wake of a Secret Army Organization announcement that it was launching an all-out campaign to lay waste to Algeria.

Hospital officials said not a single person was injured by the blasts. In recent months, after the secret army raided several hospitals, most Moslem patients were evacuated to makeshift clinics.

The hospital said the surgical pavilions and laboratory have been rendered useless.

WAS PRIME TARGET

A group from the Moslem National Liberation Front, the FLN, inspected the sprawling, 2,500-bed hospital late Thursday and announced the Moslems planned to take it over. That made it a prime target for the secret army in its plan to destroy everything that might be useful to the Moslems after independence. A clandestine radio transmitter announced Thursday night that the secret army's high command had decided to accelerate its scorched earth campaign because it had failed to obtain more concessions for the European settlers from Algeria's future Moslem rulers.

LAST DITCH STAND

The broadcast ordered all Europeans to leave Algeria. But an earlier secret army broadcast from Oran, the territory's second city in western Algeria, said European residents of western Algeria would regroup in major cities in that area for a last-ditch defense against Algerian independence.

Along with its desperation fight to leave an independent Algeria a waste land, the secret army mounted a new offensive against the French government and President Charles de Gaulle. The government announced the smashing (Continued On Page 3)

The campaign of Harry D. Ridinger for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman cost $1,340.25 according to expense accounts filed in the office of the county election board.

The amounts were listed by the Citizens For Ridinger Committee report filed by its treasurer, Bernard S. Rehmyer. Of that amount $668.67 was turned over to Ridinger for his personal campaign expenses. He filed a report showing that donation and other expenditures which included mileage, meals, transportation of electors, filing fee and advertising.

PORNOGRAPHIC MAIL STYMIES INSPECTIONS

The battle to stop sending pornographic materials through the mails is slowing the visits of inspectors to the post offices. Alexander J. Harkins, inspector in charge of the Philadelphia division, told the 150 postmasters here for the 59th annual convention of the National League of Postmasters.

Harkins, addressing the group at Thursday afternoon's session at the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom, said that "a number of the postmasters have noticed that the periodic inspections of this office have not been made during the fiscal year."

"You probably have also read that crime has increased by 10 per cent. Well, that includes postal crime as well and our inspectors have been busy dealing with that increase. We have found a terrific amount of pornographic material coming through the mail at Philadelphia and we have been busy with this one city detective, working with us, a man who has been a top detective for 35 years, tells us he has never seen anything like this stuff."

REACHES CHILDREN

"We want to stop it. It's getting into the hands of high school pupils and college students and because we are working on this we just don't have time to make all the inspections we would like to make of the post offices. But we hope to get around to you before Christmas."

Probers Dig Deeper Into Tangled Mess Of Sol Estes

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP)—The House investigation of Billie Sol Estes digs deeper today into links between the West Texas promoter and Commercial Solvents Corp., which was left holding the bag for $5.7 million when Estes' financial empire crumbled.

Called to the witness stand for the third day were Maynard C. Wheeler, Commercial Solvents president, and other top officials of the company which supplied Estes with liquid fertilizer and extended him millions in credit.

There were indications that they would be followed next week by two key figures in the Estes tangled web who were Agriculture Department officials under the Eisenhower administration and left to become directors of Commercial Solvents.

AT CONVENTION

County Treasurer Daniel J. Wolff is attending the annual state convention of the county treasurers this week at Lebanon. Former County Treasurer Clark Spence will attend the banquet session of the convention this evening.

H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, was elected chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee for his third consecutive two-year term at the county convention held Thursday evening at the courthouse.

He won by a seven-vote margin over Assemblyman Francis Worley, Latimore Twp., on a secret roll call vote. The totals were 66 for Pitzer to 59 for Worley.

Mrs. Muriel P. Brendle, New Oxford, was elected county vice chairman without opposition to succeed Mrs. Elina Group, Tyrone Twp., who won the office in a contest two years ago.

A contest for the vice chairmanship had been expected Thursday evening by many of the committeemen but Mrs. Group, in seconding the Worley nomination, had indicated she would not be a candidate for re-election if Pitzer won.

A close vote for the chairmanship was indicated in an earlier test of strength when a roll call vote was held to decide whether the chairman should be elected by a secret ballot or by a standing vote. Pitzer told the committeemen he favored "standing up to be counted." The vote was 64 to 59 in favor of a secret ballot.

After his election, Chairman Pitzer thanked the committee, expressed his appreciation for their trust and confidence and promised to "go down the line for the Republican ticket."

DELAY APPOINTMENTS

Both Pitzer and Mrs. Brendle said they will delay filling appointive offices until later. Mr. Pitzer said he will ask Crosby N. Hartzell, to continue as committee secretary and Jacob Menges, Conewago Twp., will continue as treasurer until he is reappointed or a successor is named.

The initial roll call to determine which committee members were in attendance showed 128 of the committee present either in person or by proxy. Only two were not present or represented by someone to vote in their stead. Chairman Pitzer formally declared a "quorum" to be present. Announcement of Pitzer's victory was greeted with cheers and applause and State Committee member Fred G. Pfeffer dashed from a front bench to Pitzer's side to be the first to offer congratulations. Pfeffer had been an interested spectator but did not take part in the proceedings of the evening.

FLURRY OVER MINUTES

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Pitzer who presided throughout the two-hour session. After the attendance roll call, Secretary Hartzell read the minutes of the meeting of June 9, 1960, and that set off the first flurry of the evening. Mrs. Elina Group rose to declare the minutes were incomplete and did not record an amendment to the bylaws covering voting by secret ballots. She was upheld and contradicted by several speakers.

Then Atty. Charles W. Wolf, who was serving as parliamentarian, said his records of the 1960 meeting showed the vote on secret ballot applied only to that evening and was not an amendment. Pitzer ruled the minutes correct as read and called for the treasurer's (Continued On Page 2)

2 Veterans Meet After 17 Years

Harry D. Ridinger, local realtor and borough treasurer, and a former army chum he had not seen in 17 years met in Lincoln Square here on Wednesday evening.

The Rev. Halbert M. Rasmussen, Minneapolis native and now a Lutheran pastor in Teaneck, N. J., and Ridinger had seen each other last in July, 1945, in Salzburg, Austria when the minister was chaplain of the 173rd Field Artillery Group in which Ridinger was a staff sergeant.

Rasmussen left the outfit for reassignment and the men did not meet again in the service. This week, the Rev. Mr. Rasmussen came to Gettysburg for the second annual convention of the Eastern District of the American Lutheran Church at Gettysburg College.

He was in the act of inquiring about Ridinger's residence when he saw Ridinger in conversation with two men in the square and they recognized each other.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has invited the graduating class of Glen Lake Community High School, at Glen Lake, Mich., to visit him at the White House, in recognition of an act of generosity.

Sen. Goldwater Wants JFK To Fire Crackpots

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, R-Ariz., says President Kennedy could help business by firing "the whole bunch of crackpot college professors whom he calls advisers."

The Republican conservative attacked the President's economic policies Thursday night in a speech at the 49th annual reunion of the Donegal Society at historic Donegal Presbyterian Church in nearby Mount Joy.

"Kennedy," said Goldwater, "hasn't got one sound businessman giving him advice. The only man he does have with any business experience on wall street is Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and he can't find a job anywhere except with the government."

H. Earl Pitzer

report from Mr. Menges. He presented it in brief form showing a current treasury balance of $84.81. Then Pitzer welcomed new committee members, thanked old-timers for their support in recent elections and called for nominations for chairman. He added that he had learned only last week he would have opposition.

Charles Smith, McSherrystown, jumped to his feet to nominate Pitzer. He spoke of Pitzer's "outstanding record on getting votes, getting contributions and carrying the county without the benefit of state patronage." He said the upcoming election is a crucial one and said the committee "owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Pitzer as a tireless worker, able organizer and a capable leader."

SECONDING SPEECHES
Gerald L. Nace, Berwick Twp., was on his feet promptly to nominate Worley, assemblyman from the county for 18 years who lost in the recent primary election in an effort at re-election. Nace said Worley would do everything possible to make the party strong, cited his "vast political experience" in the Legislature and said he was "a very popular man at the polls."

There was a rush of seconds for both candidates. Only two seconding speeches seemed specially prepared. Mrs. Group said, "The time is overdue for a change," cited dwindling Republican registration lead in the county (later disputed by Pitzer) and said the Republicans have "lost many offices."

Treasurer Menges spoke enthusiastically for Pitzer as a "hustler with many, many friends in high places" and concluded: "You don't turn a race horse out to pasture when he's winning purses."

Replying to Mrs. Group, Pitzer said that Republican registration for the first time since 1954 has taken a move upward and "at the last two elections we polled more votes than our registration."

As they neared voting on the chairmanship, the skirmish on the method of balloting broke out. Pitzer told the committee: "In the legislature and congress everybody knows how our representatives vote. You are elected by the Republicans of the county and they have a right to know how you vote. It doesn't matter to me but I think committee members should stand up and be counted."

It was Pitzer who directed that there be a roll call vote on the secret ballot motion. The vote was very close throughout the roll call but wound up with a five-vote margin in favor of secret voting.

Before the tellers announced results of the chairmanship ballot, Attorney Wolf congratulated the committee on "one of its most courteously conducted meetings in years."

Cy Rickrode, New Oxford, nominated Mrs. Brendle for the vice chairmanship and there were a handful of seconds by committee members, many of them women. There were no other nominations and the secretary was directed to cast a ballot for Mrs. Brendle's election.

In the closing minutes of the convention Chairman Pitzer urged the committee members to get busy on registration, promised monthly meetings up to the election, praised the Republican ticket and urged united efforts toward electing a Republican governor in the fall and a victory for the whole Republican ticket.

Tellers for the roll call votes were Vernon Rife, Chauncey Smith and Donald Walters.

KENNEDY MOVES TO STOP STRIKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy ordered the Justice Department today to seek a court order stopping the strike of machinists and other employees against Republic Aviation, the only source of supply of F105 jet fighters.

Kennedy said the strike of 9,000 workers "will imperil the national safety" if permitted to continue. The walkout started April 2 in a dispute over a new contract, with job security and severance pay provisions among the chief points of controversy.

Republic has announced some 7,600 employees will have to be laid off within the next two years because of a withdrawal of government orders.

Five craft unions also are involved, but the International Association of Machinists represents the vast majority of men and women on strike.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Transport Workers Union, representing 20,000 nonoperating employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad, announced today it has broken off negotiations with the carrier on a new contract.

The international union has been seeking increased wages, a shorter work week, certain changes in work rules and better job security in talks with the railroad negotiators since last November.

Wheeler testified Thursday that McConnell acted only as a consultant on general farm trends. He said McConnell never talked to Berger at any time while Berger was still head of the Commodities Credit Corp. Berger resigned in April 1961 after the change in administration and became a director of Commercial Solvents.

Subcommittee counsel James Naughton read into the record several letters from McConnell to Wheeler late in 1960 and early in 1961, advising on what changes were likely in government grain programs under the new administration. McConnell had gone to Washington at the company's request to look the ground over.

McConnell wrote at one point, "Milo grains (a kind of grain sorghum) are deep in the heart of Texas. I doubt if this new administration is going to do very much acreage cutting at least for a year or two. The new vice president will have something to say about this." He referred to Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

He said that since a policy has been adopted of listing all violations and holding general discussion on them "the number of violations of the rules has been dropping about 12 per cent a year."

He also told the postmasters: "The inspector is instructed to discuss the infractions with you. Don't let him just hand you a list of mistakes and then drive off. He can do his job most effectively by a man-to-man discussion in which you can find out how the thing should be cleared up. The inspector is not there just to find errors. MAY SEIZE FRANCE

Former French Premier Georges Bidault, in an interview with a Brussels newspaper, indicated the secret army still was fighting to take over France.

Gen Philippe Ginestet, commander of French forces in the Oran area for only two weeks, was shot and gravely wounded by secret army gunmen outside a military hospital chapel in that secret army stronghold. An army doctor walking alongside was killed. They had gone to the chapel to pray at the coffin of a lieutenant colonel assassinated the day before.

FIRE AND MURDER

Even as the threat of greater destruction was being broadcast, the European terrorists pressed their campaign of scorched earth and murder. They killed four persons Thursday, wounded nine others and set 21 fires in public and private buildings that might be of use to Moslems after a European exodus.

The secret army said it was ordering the European settlers to quit Algeria because the Moslems had refused to give guarantees to the European minority beyond those provided in the March 18 agreement at Evian between the Nationalists and the French government.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Sugar Rationing Ends: The last war-imposed coupon control over the American public vanished today as sugar rationing for home, restaurant and hotel use ended at midnight. After five years in which ration stamps meant more than money — when it came to meat, canned goods, shoes, tires, gasoline and host of other things — individual Americans are free of coupon worries for the first time since April 28, 1942. The last ration book can be thrown away. Sugar was the first food rationed and the last freed from coupon control.

Wilbur Plank In Business Here: Wilbur L. Plank, formerly a colonel in the Ordnance Department of the Army, announced the opening of his new firm, Wilbur L. Plank and Associates, which will operate from 123 Springs Avenue. He said the firm will be devoted to the practice of engineering and preventative maintenance. A graduate of Gettysburg College in the class of 1916, Mr. Plank engaged in electrical engineering work before he entered the service in 1940. He served as district commander with the Persian Gulf Command and upon his return to this country was ordained officer at three Texas army posts.

Lord Inverchapel, British ambassador to the United States, says the generation now being graduated from high schools must master "pitiless science" or civilization may be destroyed by atomic energy "in the hands of fools or knaves." Speaking at commencement exercises in Lancaster, Pa., Lord Inverchapel told members of the graduating class they would "have no future" unless mankind throttled atomic energy. "The fate of mankind will soon lie in those hands of yours. They must be supple and sensitive hands. Use them faithfully and wisely. Keep them strong and the future will be yours. Let them flinch, let them play over trivial things, let them wander from their duty — their fierce duty — and you will have no future."

Local Men Honored: Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church, was awarded a Doctor of Divinity degree by Franklin and Marshall college, Lancaster, at commencement exercises. Rev. Dr. Fox graduated from Dickinson college in 1920 with an A.B. degree. Three years later he was awarded an A.M. degree. C. A. Wills, Fairfield, president of the Gettysburg National Bank, was recently elected a member of the board of the Lancaster Theological Seminary.

"Secret" Meetings: There will be no more "secret" meetings of elective bodies in Pennsylvania. The legislature passed an act (and it was signed by Governor Duff) which prohibits "secret" meetings of borough councils, county commissioners, school boards, township commissioners, supervisors and the like. These elective groups may hold "executive" sessions but they cannot transact any official business. All their business must be transacted in open, public meetings.

Colored Post Buys Home: Gettysburg's recently formed colored American Legion post, the Dorsey-Stanton Post No. 986, has purchased the former colored Elks building at 141 West High St. and will convert the property into post clubrooms and dance hall. The property was owned by the Norman Tipton heirs and was sold last Saturday at public sale to the new Legion post for $2,975.

Vote To Build New Jail: The Adams county commissioners this morning voted 2 to 1 to build a new jail on the county home land fronting on the Biglerville road. Commissioner J. Arthur Boyd said, "We are acting under compulsion. Our old jail has been condemned and we must do something." Boyd and George P. Taylor voted "aye." Quintin D. Rebert did not vote but later asked

Today's Talk

ON BECOMING ACCLIMATED
I have always been attracted to those who seem to be at home under all sorts of circumstances and conditions, who are able to adapt themselves to these circumstances and conditions.

Here is where the habit of observation and appraisal comes in, as well as wide and varied reading.

There is no medicine in the world more valuable than knowledge. Outside of being a remedy, it becomes a key, as well, that is able to unlock the tightest closed doors. Neither physical beauty, nor wealth is able to compete with knowledge. And it is this very same knowledge that really acclimates us to any situation.

The interesting person is always the one who knows a little about a multitude of topics, and who is able to talk entertainingly about each.

Travel is a wonderful asset. No matter with whom you talk, if that one has traveled much and far, you are sure to learn something to your profit.

I recall arriving in a strange city. I was accompanied by a friend who had been a "glutton" for knowledge all his life. We immediately met a group of people whom we had never met before, yet so intelligent and interesting were they, that we felt once at home with them and became acclimated, as one might say, without further ado.

As I have said many times, it was Ulysses who stated that he was a part of all whom he had met. No matter where he went, there he found interests.

There is something quite appealing about the men and women who today call themselves "internationalists." All peoples have something of us within them. When we get the feeling that all men are our friends, no matter in what part of the world they may be found, then are we arriving as acclimated human beings of the world!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Standing By" Protected, 1962, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

HIS NOBLER SIDE
How little of him people knew
Who saw him at his task!
For past the work they watched him do
They seldom thought to ask.

They never saw his garden small
Where countless evening hours
He trained an ivy on the wall
And worked among the flowers.

Yet those who passed his dwelling by
And saw his lawn so trim
Unknowingly had cast an eye
Upon the soul of him.

For winds of cold indifference sweep
The beautiful away
And only those who love can keep
A little garden gay.

They knew him as a workman good,
Perhaps the very best,
But beauty smiled and understood
The courage he possessed.

that the vote be changed to show him voting against the proposal rather than abstaining from voting. Mr. Rebert said, "I respect the view of the majority of the commissioners even though I do not agree with it. I am not going to do anything to stop the construction of the new jail, however. Now that the matter has been decided I will work along in the work of building the jail. But I want to make it clear that I do not favor building a new jail at this time."

NEW YORK (AP)—"They (the public) don't know if it's bad music or a new approach," said Igor Stravinsky of his work in an epilogue to his new dance drama Thursday night.

This viewer, whose musical tastes run toward Jerome Kern and Richard Rodgers, would not presume to judge the merits of "Noah and the Flood," the 80-year-old maestro's latest—and, he said, last—work. I do know that I wasn't humming the tunes when I snapped off the set. And I still don't understand the mixture of soaring religious type poetry and comedy doggerel with which the familiar Bible story was retold against the dance background.

The dancers wore masks and did more writhing than dancing and leaping. The music was full of dissonances and sharp sounds.

$200,000 PRODUCTION
CBS, reputed to have spent almost $200,000 on the production, may feel it made the culture catch of the year with the world premiere of the great composer's work. Unhappily, I was both bored and bewildered during most of it. The most interesting part to me was the last 20 minutes of the hour special when, the musical event concluded, there was a biographical treatment of Stravinsky and his collaborator, choreographer George Balanchine. If this be a confession of lowbrowism, make the most of it.

HIGH LEVEL STAFF
"CBS Reports" has a summer schedule of repeat shows like most other programs, but will spice up its Thursday evenings with four new programs of varied offerings.

First, on July 12, will be a special edition of the network's daytime "Calendar" which will study the American woman in her home.

Three of the Thursday night specials will come in August: "An experiment in Dialogue," whatever that means; a poetry session and a musical hour. All very high level.

Nearby Chapter Blasts National GAR

HARRISBURG (AP)—A local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution has blasted the national GAR as a divisive, carping critic of the federal government and said it may be harmful to the nation's world position.

In a letter to Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, national president in Washington, the Cumberland County chapter said it believed its feelings were shared by thousands of members of the organization.

The letter, disclosed today, said the chapter had no desire to pull out of the parent organization. Instead, it urged that the group's policies be changed from within.

ACCUSE 10 OF PRICE FIXING COOKING FATS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ten companies are accused of price fixing in the shortening and salad oil fields in indictments returned by a federal grand jury Wednesday.

Fourteen individuals also were indicted by the jury.

Stanley E. Disney, chief of the Justice Department's Los Angeles antitrust field office, said that from November 1957 until January 1960 the firms stabilized shortening prices and induced others to conform. The result, Disney said, was that competition was suppressed and buyers were denied competitive markets.

Six companies were named in indictments dealing with salad oil. Disney said they stabilized tank car prices in the $6-million-a-year industry, thus suppressing competition.

SHORTENING COUNT

Named in the shortening indictments were Armour & Co., Chicago; Corn Products Co., Omaha, Neb.; Cudahy Packing Co., Omaha; Glidden Co., Cleveland, Ohio; Lever Bros. Co., New York City; Procter & Gamble Distributing Co., Cincinnati, Ohio; Swift & Co., Chicago; Vegetable Oil Products, Inc., Wilmington, Calif.; Wilson & Co., Inc., Chicago; and Wesson Oil & Snowdrift Sales Co., Fullerton, Calif.

Accused in the salad oil indictment were Corn Products Co., Glidden, Procter & Gamble, Swift, and Vegetable Oil Products. Disney said the 10 companies produce more than $40 million worth of cooking fats each year in California, Washington, Oregon, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico. Individuals named, in most cases, were Pacific Coast or Western division managers of the accused firms.

Disney said maximum penalties could be a year in prison and $50,000 fines for each of the individuals and fines of $50,000 for the corporations.

METHODISTS WILL BUILD HOME FOR AGED

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—The central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Church will build a new $1.2 million home for the aged in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county.

Dr. Alvin C. Myers, administrator of homes for the aged, told the 94th annual meeting of the conference at Dickinson college Thursday that 35 acres of land has already been purchased for the new home. Ground will be broken in December.

More than 500 lay and ministerial delegates, representing 354 conference churches, are attending the five-day session which ends Saturday.

In other action the conference adopted a budget of $1,110,426 for the 1962-63 fiscal year.

Included in the budget were: $247,520 for world services and general benevolences; $147,000 for regular conference benevolences; $92,060 for special projects; $173,300 for higher education; $22,503 for administration; $227,953 for annuity funds.

The conference also adopted resolutions today calling for more action against drinking, gambling and racial discrimination.

American League Race
Stays Tight; Senators
Clip Tribe; Chisox LoseBy JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

That's a nifty little scramble in the American League, what with the upstart Minnesota Twins and New York's perennial champion Yankees in their head-to-head duel for the lead. And it would have been even more crowded at the top if a pair of contenders like the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox hadn't hit a snag against a couple of also-rans.

Minnesota trimmed the Los Angeles Angels Thursday 5-4 on Lenine Green's game-winning single in the ninth inning. New York actually trails by half a game—a 32-22 record for the Yanks to 36-25 for the Twins—but holds a slim edge in the determining percentage column, .593 to .590.

Washington's last-place Senators clipped Cleveland 4-3, dropping the Indians 1½ games behind; Kansas City whipped the White Sox 11-8; and Jim Gentile's slugging helped Baltimore take Boston 7-4. Detroit had the day off.

5TH CHICAGO LOSS

along with the Yankees.

The Twins left 16 men on base and dissipated three leads but finally got their clincher against Art Fowler in the ninth when Green's two-out single brought in Zoilo Versalles, who had singled and moved to second on a ground out. The winner was Jim Kaat.

Danny O'Connell's bases-loaded single in the eighth inning knocked in the winning run for the Senators, who took the series from the Indians two games to one.

The Athletics dealt Chicago its fifth straight setback, pounding out 15 hits against prize rookie Joel Horlen and four other pitchers. Kansas City rookie Ed Charles homered his first two times.

League batting leader Manny Jimenez had two hits for the A's, while Jerry Lumpe homered and singled twice. Gordon Jones, Kansas City's fourth and last pitcher, gained his first victory of the year.

Gentile raised his league leading homer total to 17 when he connected in the fifth inning at Boston with one on and delivered another run as the Orioles put it out of reach with three in the sixth. Brooks Robinson also homered for Baltimore and added a double and single.

Lefty Steve Barber (5-4) was the winner with shutout relief from Hoyt Wilhelm. Bill Monbouquette was the loser.

Eastern League
The free-wheeling Williamsport Grays have run their current winning streak to eight games in the Class A Eastern League, but not without a little free-swinging, of the first victory.

The league leading Grays were well on their way to a 10-1 victory over the Springfield Giants as early as the second inning Thursday night when pitchers John Pregenzer sailed a fast ball over Dick Edwards head.

Edwards finally walked, but he and Pregenzer had words. On the way to first the fiery third baseman charged the mound. He'd hardly gone a step before both dugouts emptied.

Several fights broke out in the infield before play was restored. Plate umpire Paul Ruddy ejected Edwards.

In other games, York beat Binghamton 2-1 to even their current series at one apiece, and Charleston halved a doubleheader with Elmira winning the opener 5-1 and dropping the second 4-3.

Williamsport, which hasn't dropped a home game since May 10, belted Pregenzer for seven hits including a two run triple by John Shockley before he was pulled in the second. He was credited with the loss. Joel Gibson was the winner, his seventh victory against three losses.

Reds Shut Out Giants
As Milwaukee Mauls L.A.;
Bucs Move Up On 6th Win

By JIM BECKER

The Cincinnati Reds hung a second straight three-hit shutout on the ordinarily potent San Francisco Giants Thursday night 8-0. And the Milwaukee Braves showed the Los Angeles Dodgers around 7-1, as Bob Shaw won his eighth.

The defeats left the Dodgers two games on top over the Giants. The revitalized Pittsburgh Pirates won their sixth straight, 6-3 over the Chicago Cubs, to close to within 6½ games of the lead.

The Cincinnati triumph pushed the defending champions into a fourth place tie, 7½ away with the St. Louis Cardinals, idle Thursday but winners of nine of their last 10. Philadelphia also was idle. The Houston Colts battered their fellow freshmen in the league, the New York Mets, 10-2.

JAY ADDS WIN
Joey Jay a 21-game winner last year, raised his mark to 9-6 as he scattered three hits to shut out the Giants for the second night in a row. Frank Robinson drove in four runs, three with his eighth homer.

The Giants lost the services of ace left hander Billy Pierce (8-2), spiked on the right ankle by Don Blasingame as he covered first. Pierce, charged with the loss, will be out an estimated 12 days.

Shaw (8-2) gave the Dodgers only six hits. His mates got him five runs in the first inning off Stan Williams (6-3). Henry Aaron hammered his 12th homer.

BUCS KEEP WINNING
The Pittsburgh Pirates jumped off for two runs in the first, saw the Cubs tie on homers by Billy Williams and Ron Santo, and then went out of reach when Don Hoak hit a three-run homer in the fifth.

Bob Friend (7-7) went the route for the Pirates. Dick Ellsworth (4-9) got the loss.

Houston manhandled the Mets for seven runs in the first inning, including Carl Warwick's home run, and coasted to a 10-2 victory. Jay Hook (4-7) faced six batters without getting any out before departing. Bob Bruce (5-1) went all the way for the Colts.

USW's Leaders Foe Defeated Tuesday

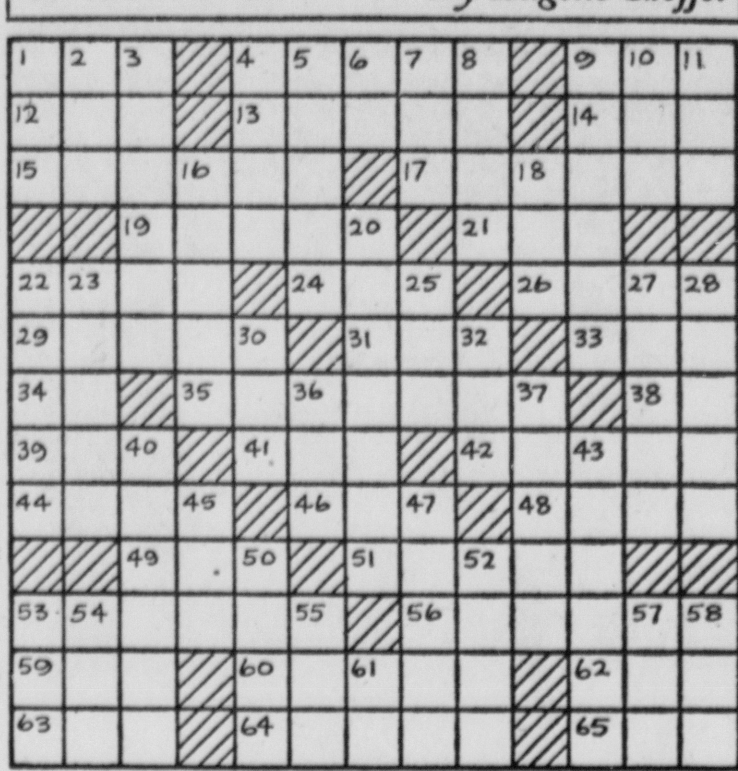

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Donald Rarick, a foe of top United Steelworkers' leadership, has lost his bid for re-election as president of USW Local 2227.

Election tabulators said Thursday Robert Baron defeated Rarick 1,223 votes to 879 in the Tuesday balloting.

Baron had the support of USW President David J. McDonald for the presidency of the local, representing 5,000 workers at U.S. Steel Corp.'s nearby Irvin Works. Rarick had been president since 1958.

Michigan State and UCLA, Rose Bowl rivals in 1954 and 1956, will meet again in 1963 at East Lansing.

School Experiment For 3-Year-Olds

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Warren, Pa., School Board will start an experimental program next fall in which children as young as three years and eight months will be admitted to kindergarten if they are "ready" for schooling. The University of Pittsburgh, which announced the plan Thursday, said the program will be undertaken in cooperation with Pitt's School of Education.

Dr. Jack Birch of Pitt's Special Education and Rehabilitation Department said one aim is to find out what effect early admissions will have on the school system in later years. Another is to prove that some children are ready for formal schooling earlier than others.

The university said some 20 percent of all children are intellectually, socially and physically ready for schooling before they are five, the usual kindergarten age.

Of the 49 bases on balls issued by Yankee Luis Arroyo in 1961, eight were intentional.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
PACKING GOOD TIPS, There's an art to packing, if you want clothes to come out of a suitcase in pristine condition.

Carefree fabrics notwithstanding! A travel wardrobe looks fresher and you feel fresher wearing it when you follow these packing tips:

- If your luggage allowance is limited, two small pieces make for more efficient storage than a single large suitcase. By using two you are able to stow clothes and lingerie in one, such heavy items as shoes and toiletries in the other. Thus the crushables are spared a possible crushing.
- Before placing outerwear in a suitcase, fold it over tissue paper. To fold a sleeved garment: 1. Stretch it out, face down, on a bed. 2. Stuff sleeves with crushed tissue and turn back to lie flat. 3. Cover garment with a smooth layer of tissue, and fold so that side seams meet at center back; fold again at waistline and lay flat in suitcase.

• To pack sleeveless garments follow rules 1 and 3, excepting a skirt, and it should be turned in half on the final fold. Shorts and slacks travel best when loosely rolled over tissue with legs together. Thus no possible muzzling!

• Safeguards for items other than outerwear take the form of shoe socks, lingerie cases, jewelry roll, cosmetic and toiletry kits. Thus no jumble or fumble!

• Indispensable to overall perfection is a grooming kit, stocked with laundry bag, spot remover, shoe cleaners, mending materials, concentrated suds, elastic clothes-line and pins. Thus clothes pack well and "wear" better!

Says Demands On Clergymen Greater Than Other Fields

By JULES LOH
AP Staff Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A prominent mental health expert feels that anybody who becomes a clergyman ought to see a psychiatrist. Dr. John P. Kildahl actually doesn't mean it quite that way; he's a clergyman himself, an ordained Lutheran minister.

But he also is a practicing psychotherapy specialist, as well as the head of the psychology department of Brooklyn's Lutheran Medical Center, and his double-edged experience has convinced him that "the demands on a minister's personality and emotions are greater than most other professions."

Only by thoroughly understanding themselves, he said, can ministers help others solve their problems.

SYMPATHY, EMPATHY

Dr. Kildahl believes clergymen must maintain a healthy detachment in their relations with their flocks, which isn't always easy. "If there's a death in the parish," he said, "the minister can't allow his own emotions to be affected if he expects to be of help to the bereaved family. He must be able to differentiate between sympathy and empathy."

He said most parishioners expect their pastor to be, as St.

Paul put it, "all things to all men." But Dr. Kildahl feels this is all but impossible for a normal human being living in the 20th Century to take literally.

His desire to counsel others was what led Dr. Kildahl from the ministry to medicine.

After his graduation from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., in 1949 he entered the Lutheran Seminary in St. Paul. During his postgraduate years he served as a hospital chaplain and the experience whetted his appetite for more knowledge on the methods of dealing with others' emotional problems.

He entered New York University while serving as an assistant minister at Bethany Lutheran Church in Brooklyn. When he received his doctorate in 1957 he left the ministry and took up private practice as a psychologist.

According to the Florida Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, the need for a drink of liquor before beginning the day is a sign of increasing dependence on alcohol and the progressing illness of alcoholism.

NEIGHBORS AND FENCES

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Maybe Walt and Jerry don't realize the paradox in this scene. They're simply leaning on the fence while their youngsters enjoy the new sliding board in Walt's backyard.

But fences once implied enmity... fear... selfishness. They are first cousins to the walls the ancients built around their cities.

Centuries of Christian influence have implanted a different spirit in men's hearts. A fence today can add interest and beauty to neighbors' gardens, while keeping Walt's and Jerry's kids from running across the flower beds.

There are countless evidences of Christian influence in our community today. The Church has elevated human ideals. Faithful worship and spiritual growth bring us closer to those ideals.

Kennedy Finds Considerable Opposition From Democratic Congress; Too Many Bills

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — It can't be said that Congress has taken over the reins from President Kennedy, but it is certainly bouncing him around in the driver's seat.

In the 1960 presidential campaign he said "a do-nothing party will not do. Four more years of a Republican President blocking action by a Democratic Congress will not do."

"What we need, what we seek, what this campaign is intended to bring, is action instead of drift—leadership, not salesmanship—and dedication in place of mediocrity."

The picture has changed and now a Democratic President is being blocked by a Democratic Congress, where Democrats far outnumber Republicans, in one field after another.

PROGRAMS KILLED
Major programs have been killed, abandoned, or bottled up. And most lately the House and Senate have frustrated him a bit in foreign policy. Even his right arm in the Senate, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, has called for a re-examination of Kennedy's Southeast Asia policy.

Kennedy has deluged Congress with proposals—too many as it turns out—for many will be thrust aside as members of both House and Senate hurry to get home early for this fall's congressional elections.

He himself admits Congress will not try to pass all the legislation he sent up.

Take a look at what has been happening to just these few major items he mentioned:

MEDICAL CARE BILL FADES
His medical care bill looks so lost in the House Ways and Means Committee — where Democrats outnumber Republicans 15 to 10—that the Kennedy administration is willing to compromise now to save some fragments of it.

His youth employment opportunities bill is still in a House committee.

His proposal to aid higher education has passed both Houses but in different form and can't become law until the differences are ironed out.

His foreign trade bill, with additional power to cut tariffs, is out of the Ways and Means Committee which handled it but with changes which must have jolted him.

TAX BILL BOTTLED
His tax revision bill passed the House but is bottled up in a Senate committee where, perhaps, it may be massacred.

And there are things he left unsaid: Last year he made a big pitch for aid to public schools but seems so much to have given up hope for it that, while it's still lying around, he has stopped talking of it.

He asked Congress to pass a law banning literacy tests in voting but the Senate killed that. He wanted a new department of urban affairs and housing but the House slaughtered that one.

Kennedy wants to raise the public debt limit from $300 billion to $308 billion. This is being kicked around in the House where there seems to be a strong mood to limit an increase to $306 billion or not raise it at all.

OPPOSE JFK WISHES
Last week both House and Senate, carried along by their anti-Communist fervor, took actions which were contrary to Kennedy's wishes and will make life a little tougher for him in trying to encourage Yugoslavia and Poland to become increasingly independent of Moscow.

And while Kennedy has promised to ask Congress to cut everybody's taxes—as of next Jan. 1—the powerful chairman of the same Ways and Means Committee, Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., says he doesn't support the idea.

Mickey Rooney Says He's $464,914 In Debt
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mickey Rooney is finding that he doesn't lose his friends as easily as he lost his money.

They began rallying to his aid after he filed for bankruptcy Tuesday. He claims he's broke and $464,914 in debt.

One of Rooney's creditors, attorney Robert A. Neeb of Los Angeles, said the 39-year-old actor could forget a $5,500 bill. Neeb represented Rooney's fourth wife, Elaine, in her divorce suit.

"I hope you will look upon me as a friend and not as a claimant. And I want you to take this letter as a waiver of all sums owed by you to me," Neeb wrote Rooney.

He said he would ask other creditors to join him in waiving their rights.

Rooney reportedly has earned $12 million in 30 years of show business. He blames his financial condition on bad counsel and bad judgment.

RECALLS FIRST FATHER'S DAY IN SPOKANE

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—A two-horse carriage bumped along a dirt street in Spokane 52 years ago this Sunday.

Two women were riding in the carriage and on its floor was a bundle—containing gifts for "shut-in" fathers on the nation's first Father's Day.

Father's Day has seen progress move from horse and buggy times to space crafts orbiting around our earth," says Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, founder of Father's Day. "I experience indescribable pride when I think of the courage of our young astronaut fathers who are daring the elements in quest of peace. May our Supreme Father companion them always."

Mrs. Dodd, daughter of a Civil War veteran, was one of the women in the carriage more than half a century ago. A friend, Eva Cummings Estes, was the other.

"My father—William Jackson Smart—reared six of us children on an eastern Washington wheat farm after our mother's passing," Mrs. Dodd recalls. "He was a strict disciplinarian. But he was very gentle, too."

The idea to honor her father, and all fathers, grew in Mrs. Dodd's mind after she heard a sermon on the trials—and joys—of fatherhood. She encouraged Spokane clergymen to make father the theme of their sermons on the third Sunday in June. City and state officials were asked to proclaim the day Father's Day.

It wasn't until 1916 that President Woodrow Wilson recommended that Father's Day be made a national observance.

Mrs. Dodd—gray-haired but in good health and busy—said she has turned down a hundred offers to endorse liquor, soap—even steaks.

"I would never endorse anything," said Mrs. Dodd, "but steak would be nice for father on his day, wouldn't it?"

Vacancy On Court Won't Be Filled

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — There is no immediate need for Gov. Lawrence to appoint an interim justice to fill a vacancy on the State Supreme Court, says Chief Justice John C. Bell, Jr.

Bell, in an interview published in Thursday's Philadelphia Inquirer, said the court is to meet only once between now and the Nov. 6 election and can accomplish its work without the appointment.

The vacancy was created by the death last month of Justice Curtis Bok. Voters will elect his successor to a full 21 year term in November.

Gov. Lawrence himself, noting earlier in the week that the court had but one short session before the election, indicated he would not make any interim appointment.

Instructor Billy Reynolds (turning front wheel) and Shell dealers check out a car at one of Shell's 123 training centers.

Shell instructor Billy Reynolds offers 10 clues that may help you spot trouble before it starts

Billy Reynolds

OVER 12,000 Shell dealers go to Shell training centers every year. There, they learn how to spot trouble quickly.

Here are 10 trouble signals that Billy Reynolds, one of Shell's chief instructors, always stresses. If you notice any of them in your car, tell your Shell dealer. His advice might head off a big repair bill later on.

1. Mushy brakes. When your car is standing still, push the brake pedal down with a firm, steady pressure. If it feels soft and sinks to the floor, you've got trouble that should be fixed right away.

2. Wandering wheels. If your front tires show more wear on one side of the tread than the other, your wheel alignment is probably at fault. Out-of-line wheels can increase tire wear up to 50 percent.

3. Jiggly front end. Shove down hard on either bumper with your foot. If the car bobs up and down for a long time before coming to a rest, ask your Shell dealer to check your shock absorbers.

4. Decrepit tail pipe. If your muffler or tail pipe is rusted through in spots, it's a good idea to replace it.

5. "Bloated" radiator hoses. Inspect all of the rubber hoses that interconnect your cooling system. If they're cracked or swollen, they can fail at any time and cause your engine to overheat.

6. Marred windshield. If your windshield is scarred or streaked, it's probably due to faulty windshield wipers. Have your Shell dealer check and replace them if necessary.

7. Strange noises. Listen for any odd noises from your car. They can be warnings of trouble on the way.

8. Under-the-hood clues. You can learn a lot by looking at your engine. Watch for oil, fuel and water leaks. Also, loose wires and worn insulation.

9. Sluggish battery. If your engine turns over more slowly than usual when you start up, a weak battery is probably the trouble. But it could be something else. Better check it.

10. Oil-streaked sidewalls. Check the sides of your tires you seldom see—the sides facing in. Look for signs of leaking fluid on the tire walls. Could be a leaking brake cylinder, or faulty oil seals on the rear wheels. Both can be serious.

Any trained Shell dealer knows many trouble signals besides these. Take advantage of his training. And one last tip: when you've got your car in top condition, keep it filled with today's Super Shell—for top performance all year long.

COUNTIAN IS ON TEST DUTY

Air Force Technical Sergeant Calvin C. Maitland, of Littlestown, is participating in "Operation Dominic," the joint Department of Defense-Atomic Energy Commission nuclear test series being conducted in the Pacific.

Maitland, a sergeant major, is on special temporary duty for the tests and will return to his permanent Air Force unit at the conclusion of the operation. He is son of Mrs. George L. Maitland, 70 W. King St., and a graduate of Littlestown High School. His wife is the former Miss Suzanne M. Keefe, 48 S. Queen St., Littlestown.

Operation Dominic is a joint DOD-AEC nuclear test series conducted in the atmosphere over the Pacific Ocean.

President Kennedy authorized the operation on March 2, 1962, saying it would involve only those tests which cannot be held underground. The tests are to be conducted under conditions which restrict the radioactive fallout to an absolute minimum. The President authorized the series only after exhaustive evaluation of the Russian atmospheric tests of 1961 showed that the U. S. had been left no choice but to keep the U. S. defensive arsenal adequate for the security of all free men.

near future.

A representative was in attendance from the Black Walnut District of Boy Scouts to thank the association for the use of the property at the recent district camporee. Secretary G. Richard Knipfle gave his report. At the conclusion of business, refreshments were served by Ernest C. Renner, Gene R. Renner and Mark Redding.

The sportsmen will meet again on Wednesday, July 11, when the refreshment committee comprises Raymond O. Riffle, Fred Rittase and Roscoe W. Rittase.

Mrs. T. Kennedy Measures Up As A Good Politicker

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When the President's younger brother announced the other day he planned to enter his first political race, women around the country began to wonder: What is Mrs. Ted Kennedy like and how does she measure up as Kennedy campaigner?)

BY JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

A year ago Joan Kennedy candidly admitted it was hard to keep up with her in-laws.

"I'm learning a lot about politics," she said then, by way of example. "They've lived it all their lives."

How much politicking skill Joan has absorbed from the kinetic Kennedys is about to be put to the test.

When her husband Edward, known as Ted, took to the hustings to win the Democratic nomination for senator from Massachusetts, she was at his side—smiling, shaking hands, but silent. He'll do all the talking, she says.

Observers point out that Joan, with her blue-eyed, blonde good looks and gracious manner, is somewhere between ebullient Ethel, Attorney General Robert Kennedy's wife, and the basically shy First Lady.

JACKIE WINS CROWD

But Mrs. John F. Kennedy, revered by nature though she may be, has always risen to the occasion.

Pregnant during her husband's campaign for the presidency, she couldn't work actively. Nonetheless, the few appearances she did make, at volunteer headquarters and such, left staffs starry-eyed for days.

After she became First Lady she won over people on trips abroad. With her husband in Europe a spring ago the crowds applauded "la belle Jacqui."

As for the Indian-Pakistani visit, "she charmed everyone wherever she went" one official summed it up. And an aged lady elephant named Bibia, after Mrs. Kennedy thanked her for a ride, politely lifted her trunk and a front leg in salute.

NO SLACKER

No slacker in the foreign friendship department is Ethel Kennedy. Last summer she accompanied her husband to West Africa and enchanted the Ivory Coast with her homey interest in how they lived. Perhaps her most endearing quote: "I'm jealous" of a village official who has 10 children. Ethel has only seven.

On the recent four-week world tour she kept pace with her energetic spouse, was fussed over from everybody from Japanese geisha girls to the Dutch queen.

In the last presidential campaign Ethel Kennedy was unofficially elected "Miss Perpetual Motion of 1960" by admiring, perspiring photographers trying to keep up with her efforts in behalf of her brother-in-law.

The title will probably be retired one of these days; Ethel hasn't had a challenger.

LEARNED FROM ETHEL

It was at Ethel's side — and with the Kennedy sisters — that Joan got her kindergarten training in Kennedy campaigning.

As a relatively new member of the clan — she and Ted were married in November, 1958 — she traveled California with sister-in-law Patricia (Mrs. Peter Lawford) and Pennsylvania with Ethel.

She recalls their campaign meetings:

"They were neighborhood things, you know; coffee in the morning, or tea in the afternoon, with 25 to 50 ladies, sometimes 100. We'd stand around and chat, and I guess shake hands with every lady there — not in a reception line, moving around."

"Then one of us — not me — would get up and talk about what kind of a person Jack, the President, is and ask if there were any questions."

"(Eunice (Mrs. Sargent Shriver) is the one who would talk on the issues. The others just talked about his qualifications and about what kind of a man he is."

WILL BE WITH HUSBAND

She plans to be as affable, and noncommittal, in Ted's campaign.

Being with Ted probably means the most to Joan. Since he became a $1 a year assistant Suffolk County district attorney more than a year ago, Joan hasn't seen too much of him. He spent his day at the courthouse and most evenings making speeches Joan would go with him whenever she could but there was always the problem of sitters for little Kara now 2½ and Edward Jr., born last September.

Joan accompanied her husband on a 10-day semi-official goodwill tour of Italy last spring — she looked radiantly happy in pictures photographers snapped of them sightseeing among Rome's classic ruins.

But Ted went alone on other foreign excursions — an African fact-finding trip for his newly elected President, an unofficial Latin American tour and a recent Middle Eastern and European sojourn, in which he visited the Irish branch of the Kennedy clan in County Wexford.

THEIR FIRST REAL HOME

When Joan accompanies Ted, household help stays with the children. However, she says, no part of Massachusetts is more than 2½ hours by automobile from Boston, except the offshore islands of Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard.

Their vine-covered brick house at the foot of Beacon Hill — "one of these tall, skinny things" Joan describes it — is their first real home.

They met in 1957. Ted was in Harvard law school and pretty Joan Bennett of Bronxville, N. Y., was at Manhattanville. She was graduated in June 1958, and they were married in November. Until they were settled in the Charles River Square house in Boston late in 1960 they were at Charlottesville, Va., while Ted finished law school.

SHE LOVES CAMPAIGNING

She admits she's not much of a cook — "I get kidded a lot." But Joan likes cultural things, such as playing the piano and attending concerts.

Is she fitted temperamentally for the role of a political campaigner's wife?

She says she loved every minute of her 1960 campaigning, and expects to enjoy it even more alongside her husband.

TINY HITLERS GET THE BOOT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police provided an escort to the city late Thursday night for three men who said they were members of the American Nazi Party.

The three said they had planned to picket the office of the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith, a Jewish fraternal organization. Two wore uniforms with swastika arm bands.

Police, however, met them at the building and asked them not to leave their car because a crowd of about 500 was becoming hostile. The crowd shouted threats at them.

Schuyler Ferris of Arlington, Va., spokesman for the group who was not in uniform, said, "we will obey the order of the police, although it violates our constitutional rights."

After 10 minutes on the crowded street, a detective climbed into the car with the three and ordered them to drive to a police station for questioning. A few hours later they were escorted by patrol cars from the city. No charges were filed.

The anti-defamation league said it was unfortunate the citizens of Philadelphia on flag day "should be subjected to the spectacle of a demonstration by the lunatic dregs of Nazism."

Tea was introduced to London in 1657, four decades after Shakespeare's death. Price was $30 to $50 a pound.

Pin Point Enlargement

Boy With Sewed-on Arm Is Anxious To Play Baseball

BOSTON (AP)—"The first thing I'm gonna do is start exercising my arm. Then I'm gonna go down to the park and play ball."

"And if I can't do it then, I'll exercise some more."

Any ambitious Little Leaguer might say that. But it's different when it comes from Everett Knowles Jr., 12.

For "Red" Knowles' right arm was cut off by a freight train and sewed back by surgeons.

The rare operation is far from finished but doctors at Massachusetts General Hospital are cheered by progress—enough so "Red" could go home Wednesday just three weeks after his accident.

Fellow Little Leaguers swarmed around "Red" at his home in suburban Somerville. A new puppy named "Sandy"—a homecoming gift—sat beside him on the sofa. A baseball glove lay on a blanket.

HAD BEST DOCTOR

"I really want to thank those doctors," the boy said. "There wasn't no other doctors in the world who could do it. They did it for me. I had the best doctors in Massachusetts—or New England."

"In the world, honey," said the boy's mother.

The talk turned to the boy's accident May 23. How did it happen?

"I was down at a bridge near the railroad tracks, just fooling around," the boy said. "I wanted to hop a train just once, just to see what it was like. I don't remember, though, just how the accident happened. But when I was hit, I looked down and my arm was hanging on by just a few threads."

Doctors said the boy told them he was riding a train and was banged against a bridge abutment.

Dr. Robert Shaw, one of the surgeons, said that if all goes well, the boy will be feeling in hand and arm, be able to pick up things "and for all we know even may be able to throw a baseball again. That remains to be seen."

Europeans Told To Flee Algeria And Set Fires

ALGIERS (AP)—Thousands of tense Europeans besieged airline offices Thursday in the wake of a Secret Army Organization broadcast telling Algerian's European settlers to flee and leave the country in flames.

By midmorning nearly 4,000 persons waited in the brilliant sun outside the buildings of Air France and Air Algerie.

Air passengers to France for weeks had been handled by military authorities because of a secret army ban on the civilian airlines. The terrorists hoped to prevent a mass exodus and continue to draw support from the settlers.

But with the prospect of preventing Algerian independence growing ever more hopeless, the secret army lifted its ban and told the settlers, "We will leave nothing behind. We are not joking."

The pirate broadcast said the secret army will distribute five gallons of gasoline to each European family "to burn their furniture and other possessions they cannot take with them."

The terrorist aim now is to leave Algeria a waste land, denying to the Moslems the fruit of French economic development.

STOCK MARKET SAGS TO NEW LOW FOR 1962

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market drops today at its lowest level since Nov. 2, 1960.

It sank decisively Thursday through the low point reached in the May 28 collapse.

The fall was the fourth sharp loss of the week on heavy selling by dispirited investors. It erased an estimated $5.6 billion from the quoted value of shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Why the market has kept dropping without a shove by discouraging developments was a baffling question on Wall Street.

"Words, excuses, reasons are not going to help," said a broker. "They never do when you have emotion dominating the Stock Market."

Many analysts have been putting part of the blame on what they term the Kennedy Administration's antibusiness attitude since it forced the steel industry to rescind a price increase.

House Members Fearful Of Blackmail And Threats In Move To Raise Debt Limit

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—With cries of blackmail and threats of a special session ringing in their ears, House members face a decision on whether to increase the national debt limit by $8 billion or $6 billion or not at all.

President Kennedy wants the $8-billion boost for one year; most Republicans favor a $6-billion raise; some members don't want any increase.

Unless Congress does something in a hurry, the present temporary ceiling of $300 billion will drop to $285 billion at the end of this month. The administration claims this would put the government in a financial straitjacket.

Republicans argue the $6-billion hike would not put the Treasury in a bind although it might force some cutbacks in nondefense spending.

Democrats contend the $8-billion boost is the minimum necessary to provide for seasonal variations in tax collections, assuming a balanced budget for the coming fiscal year—an assumption many Republicans claim is based on day-dreaming.

Opponents of any increase, apparently in the minority, called for financial belt-tightening and a halt to any spending that could be deferred.

Debate Wednesday on the controversial issue brought a threat from Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., that any increase below $8 billion might force the President to call a special session of Congress next fall to provide more

One analyst, L. O. Hooper of W. E. Hutton & Co., offered a different view. He said: "Many people seem to think someone is personally responsible for what has happened in the market recently. The fact is that this decline stems from the abuse of common stocks by almost everyone in the period of over-speculation."

PITTSBURGH TO REBUILD IN TRIANGLE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh is planning a sweeping reconstruction of almost the whole of the city's downtown "Golden Triangle" section.

The vast 374-acre reconstruction would cost at least $84 million, to be provided jointly by the federal state and city government with additional private investment expected.

Executive Director Patrick J. Cusick Jr. of the Pittsburgh Regional Planning Association described the ambitious 18-year program Thursday night at a Golden Triangle Association dinner.

Highlights of the plan include a partly underground public transportation system with driverless electric cars speeding at up to 75 miles an hour, tree-lined pedestrian malls, new river-front apartment buildings and an entertainment center grouping theaters, supper clubs and restaurants around a plaza.

The apartment buildings to be built along the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers would contain 3,500 to 5,350 units.

New parking facilities would also be built while office space would be increased by about 25 per cent with the construction of new buildings. The plan would require the demolition of almost all of the structures now standing on the 38-acre Lower Triangle.

MATCHING FUNDS

The plan, still in preliminary stages, must obtain the approval of the City Planning Commission and the City Council.

It calls for federal matching funds of $13.5 million, a $23.4 million stake from the Pittsburgh Parking Authority and $1 million from the state.

You, too, can help put down a threat to freedom

Uncle Sam has had some pretty conscientious help in the "freedom department" over the years.

Some of the best-known contributors were an expert horseman named Revere ... a group of amateur stevedores who made iced tea in Boston Harbor ... and a party of revolutionaries who created an unsplit nation under the shadow of a cracked bell.

Today the freedom which those patriots won for us is being challenged. And freedom will always need brave men to defend and preserve it. Men and women, like you.

Estes Testimony Opens New Avenues For Investigation

By JERRY PILLARD

FRANKLIN, Tex. (AP)—Testimony from Billie Sol Estes opened new avenues for investigation in the mystery death of an Agriculture Department official, Dist. Atty. Bryan Russ said Wednesday night.

Russ said he will subpoena three or four additional witnesses before the Robertson County grand jury holds its next session Monday.

The grand jury is investigating the fatal shooting June 3, 1961, of Henry H. Marshall, 52, who was state chief of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. They questioned Estes, erstwhile farm financier, for nearly two hours Wednesday. None of his testimony was made public.

MANY QUESTIONS

"From his testimony some new avenues have opened up that we have to go into," said Russ.

He declined to name the prospective witnesses.

Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said jurors peppered Estes with questions at a rate of more than one a minute.

Wilson said Estes refused to answer about 100 questions on the ground of possible self-incrimination.

Because of the answers "and lack of them" from Estes, the attorney general said he would intensify his investigation of Estes' business affairs. Estes has been indicted on charges of fraud and theft linked to his multi-million-dollar sales of liquid fertilizer. Estes' cotton, grain storage and fertilizer empire is in receiver-ship.

NOT A SUSPECT

Through lawyer John D. Cofer

of Austin, Estes first sought a court order stating he did not have to testify before the grand jury because its members might be biased and had him under suspicion in the Marshall's death.

Cofer, after questioning eight grand jurors, withdrew the request for a court order. All agreed they didn't consider Estes a suspect in Marshall's death.

Marshall had been looking into Estes' manipulations of cotton acreage allotments before he was found on his ranch near here, shot five times with a bolt action rifle. The Agriculture Department later ruled that Estes obtained cotton allotments illegally and fined him $554,172.

The grand jury here is trying to determine whether Marshall was murdered or committed suicide. A justice of the peace ruled at the time that the bullet wounds were self-inflicted.

Two weeks ago, the body was exhumed and Dr. J. A. Jachimczyk, a Houston pathologist, said Marshall probably was murdered.

LEADS FIELD

SARDIS, Pa. (AP)—Pittsburgh's Rudy Etchin went into the second day of the Pennsylvania State Trapshooting Championships today leading the field with perfect scores in two of Thursday's events.

Etchin tied with six other shooters for first place in the 16-yard event, smashing all 100 targets. He won the 50-target doubles with 50 in a row.

Etchin scored 48 in the 50-target handicap while Louis Gerco of Mount Carmel won it with a perfect score of 50.

REDS EXPECT DIVIDENDS IN LAOS ACCORD

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Troika bells may be ringing exultantly in the Kremlin in expectation of big dividends from the East-West accord in Laos.

The troika is a symbolic thing for the Russians—three horses hitched together to pull one wagon.

Last year Premier Khrushchev demanded the troika system for the United Nations, with one representative each—and one veto each—for the Communists, the West and the neutralists. It ran into stiff opposition, since it was fairly obvious such a secretariat would paralyze U.N. peace-making efforts. That did not deter the Russians from attempting to impose it time after time.

MAY BOSTER REDS
At last they seem to have been successful, with the arrangement that is supposed to bring peace to the confused little kingdom of Laos in Indochina. And the Lao-tian troika was not a Communist idea. It was proposed by the right-wing royal government that the United States backed.

The result can be to strengthen Khrushchev's hand throughout the Red bloc, give a lift to his leadership by quieting his critics, and embolden him to generate new crises elsewhere, later on.

There is the prospect at least that before long Laos will be little more than another Red-dominated enclave in Southeast Asia.

The Kennedy Administration welcomed the arrangement, with reservations.

SEE RED PRESSURE

What has the accord done?

It has set up a three-sided arrangement to run the affairs of Laos, representing (1) the pro-Western faction of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, supported by the United States; (2) Prince Souvanna Phouma, who is called a neutralist, and (3) Prince Souphanouvong, who seems as pro-Communist as anyone could be without carrying a party card.

Communist pressure now will be brought to bear for the quick departure of U.S. advisers to the Vientiane government and an end to U.S. military aid. The Communist Pathet Lao, with help from neighboring Red North Viet Nam and Communist China, and with military forces that have proved their superiority over the royal army, surely will hold the commanding position in the country.

Letters To The Editor

June 14, 1962

Dear Sir,

My husband and I have been deeply distressed concerning the forthcoming decision of the Supreme Court in October relating to Bible reading and prayer in our public schools.

I have read that Maryland appealed to uphold Bible readings—the exact opposite of Pennsylvania.

When we in America have such a wonderful democracy how can we shun the one Person who has made it so?

I realize that some poor unfortunate souls think we are not abiding by the Constitution to separate church and state. Some of these parents are from Pennsylvania, my state!

If these parents are so ungrateful to God and cannot tolerate their children to be present during morning devotions, they should be sent from the room or else conduct their own special devotions (whatever it may be).

Why should the majority suffer because of a few parents demanding devotions be stopped?

Of course we have our Sunday Schools and churches which are truly important and necessary. However, Christianity is an everyday affair, not a once a week affair. We want our four children to respect God at home, at school and at church.

In my religion I have always been taught to respect other faiths even though I could not always accept their way of thinking.

Is our God so unimportant that we sit back like cowards afraid our next door neighbor will know how we truly feel?

Our teachers can apparently "damn" God all they please but let them "praise" Him and it is a federal offense!

I am not a Catholic but I'm beginning to feel their special schools combining religion and school work are perhaps a very rewarding experience for the children and parents as well.

If a few parents can voice their opinion against devotions in school, why can't I voice this family's opinion for devotions in the school?

Sincerely,
MRS. DONALD P.

HOPES HOUSE WILL REVERSE SENATE STAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is looking to the House to unlock handcuffs the Senate clamped on foreign aid to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia.

Several House members are known to be concerned about the prohibition the Senate placed last week on all but surplus food assistance to Communist or Marxist dominated countries. Several are preparing to argue vigorously that this restriction be struck from the aid bill.

The test of Kennedy's campaign for a free hand may come when the House takes up the measure, perhaps in 10 days to two weeks.

BACKS KENNAN STAND

At his news conference Thursday Kennedy endorsed criticism of the Senate action voiced by Ambassadors George F. Kennan in Belgrade and John Moors Cabot in Warsaw. They had reported that the Senate restriction could seriously undermine U.S. efforts to wean Yugoslavia and Poland from Moscow.

"Both of them regard this action as a major setback and a great asset to Moscow," Kennedy said. "I don't think we should do those favors."

The State Department is gravely concerned about the restriction voted by the Senate and also about a requirement written into Kennedy's trade bill by the House wago Recreation Association, the McSherrystown Athletic Association baseball team, the Heart Fund, the Adams County Red Cross and the American Cancer Society.

After the business meeting refreshments were served.

20TH CENTURY LIMITED IS STILL TOPS

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the world's most famous trains celebrates its 60th anniversary today—still a showpiece in an era of diminishing rail travel.

It's the New York Central's Twentieth Century Limited, running between New York and Chicago.

While the noted flyer nowadays doesn't have quite all the elegant touches of yesteryear, it continues to provide the railroad's tops in equipment and personal service.

And the renowned red carpet still is rolled out on the platform for passengers boarding at either end of the line. Countless patrons have remained faithful through many years.

CARRIED FAMOUS FOLK

Al Jolson used to entertain dining car crowds with popular songs of the day.

On some occasions, the train has been all but mobbed at stops because of the personages it carried. Among them were Ignace Jan Paderewski, the celebrated pianist and president of Poland, and film stars Douglas Fairbanks Sr., and bride, Mary Pickford—"America's sweetheart."

The Twentieth Century was purposely created as a luxurious, fast-run train on June 15, 1902. At times it has provided such niceties as barber service, private valets, stenographers and a library.

42 ON FIRST DAY

Through the years the train has been celebrated in plays, films, songs, books, poems and newspaper and magazine articles galore. The train's "Diamond Jubilee," as the Central calls it, will be hailed today in ceremonies here and in Chicago.

The first Century trains—it takes a pair to make the daily run each way—consisted of a steam locomotive and five wooden but ornate cars. The cars were three pullmans, a dining car and a car containing a buffet, library and barber shop.

On the first day, the trains carried a total of 42 passengers.

For some years, the train ran on a 20-hour schedule each way. Since 1932 it has made the 961-mile trip in 960 minutes, or 16 hours. As an accommodation to business men, it leaves each city late in the day and arrives at the other first thing next morning.

CREW OF 55

In the 60 years, the Central estimates, its twin Centuries have carried 62 million passengers a total of 62½ million miles.

Passengers have averaged 103,000 yearly, producing an average revenue of $4.1 million annually. Last year there were nearly 152,000 passengers and the trains grossed approximately $8.1 million.

On every run now each Century, pulled by a diesel electric engine and with about 16 streamlined cars, needs a total crew of 55. In addition each train has a mail car requiring a total of 29 clerks.

CORNELL IS FAVORED

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Cornell is the pick of a majority of the coaches to win the Intercollegiate Rowing Association championship Saturday.

Cornell was the pick in 1960 and 1961 but California, under rookie coach Jim Lemmon rowed off with the major honors both years.

Other schools entered, besides Cornell and California, are Pennsylvania, Syracuse, Wisconsin, MIT, Navy, Princeton, Brown, Dartmouth, Rutgers and Columbia.

Ways and Means Committee. This would deny Poland and Yugoslavia the preferential tariff treatment accorded friendly countries under the most favored nation principle. The House has not yet taken up the bill.

In foreign aid and trade matters, Yugoslavia has been treated by this country as a friendly nation and Poland has been given special concessions.

To Graduate

Gene E. Hoak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer F. Hoak, R. 3, will be graduated from Drexel Institute of Technology, Philadelphia, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering on Saturday.

Mr. Hoak graduated from Gettysburg High School. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon social fraternity. After playing lacrosse three years, he was elected honorable mention All-American in 1960.

Following six weeks of ROTC summer camp at Fort Belvoir, Va., Mr. Hoak will be employed by the National Security Agency at Fort George G. Meade, Md.

HOUSE BACKS PRESIDENT ON DEBT LIMIT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House has chalked up for President Kennedy what may be a short-lived victory in his fight for a temporary national debt ceiling of $308 billion.

By a vote of 211-192 it sent to the Senate Thursday a bill upholding the President's position after defeating, 258-145, a Republican-backed drive for a $306-billion limit.

More trouble lies ahead in the Senate, Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the finance committee, opposes the larger figure.

SEE $306 BILLION

Byrd has suggested no compromise figure, but informed guessing is that in its final form the limit will be pegged at $308 billion, a figure the administration claims won't give it enough leeway to deal with fiscal fluctuations during the coming year.

Kennedy suggested at his news conference Thursday that failure to raise the debt ceiling could have a profound effect on the economy.

The question came up when he was asked to comment on Republican charges the administration has been pressuring congressmen to support a higher debt limit or risk loss of defense work in their districts.

Without replying directly, Kennedy said he hopes it was explained to all congressmen that failure to boost the limit would force the government to stretch out payment of its bills.

TIME GROWS SHORT

He recalled that the Eisenhower administration was forced to do this in 1957. Kennedy said the Brookings Institution and scholars from other organizations have concluded this stretchout was a factor in creating the 1958 recession.

The Senate Finance Committee, headed by Byrd, doesn't plan to start hearings on the debt limit increase before June 25. That is five days before the end of the present fiscal year, when the temporary debt ceiling of $300 billion drops to $285 billion, about $9 billion less than the expected national debt at that time.

Four Democrats joined the House Republicans in their fight for a $306-billion roof. Twenty-one Republicans voted against it.

On passage, 202 Democrats and 9 Republicans gave the President his victory, while 39 Democrats joined 153 Republicans in opposition.

Says Khrushchev Meddles In Canadian Politics

By MAX HARRELSON

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker has accused Soviet Premier Khrushchev of meddling in Canadian politics with a charge that Diefenbaker's Conservative government is making preparations for nuclear armament.

With the election of a new Parliament coming up Monday, Diefenbaker said Thursday in a campaign speech Khrushchev "doesn't want this government back because we took a stand on Soviet colonialism that he doesn't like."

Soviet Ambassador A. A. Aronov delivered a Kremlin protest Thursday which said 2 nuclear warheads are located on Canadian territory, the Soviet Union would have to take counter-measures to safeguard its security.

REJECT RED NOTE

Diefenbaker's government immediately rejected the Soviet note as "inadmissible interference in Canadian affairs."

Diefenbaker's chief opponents unanimously backed him against the Soviets.

Lester B. Pearson, Liberal leader, termed the Soviet statement "arrogant and clumsy" and said it would not affect Canadian attitudes toward nuclear weapons or toward Soviet imperialism.

T. C. Douglas of the New Democratic party said Khrushchev should know Canadians deplored the "callous and contemptuous" Soviet resumption of nuclear testing last fall.

WAS "ILL TIMED"

The Social Credit leader, Robert Thompson, said the Soviet statement was "ill timed and nothing more than Russian interference with a Canadian election."

Canada is building two Bomarc missile bases at North Bay, Ont., but has not decided whether to accept nuclear warheads or get them from the United States after an attack. Diefenbaker indicated Thursday night that a Conservative government would never allow U.S. nuclear warheads on Canadian soil except in wartime.

"We have given the assurance," he said in a broadcast, "that Canada will not join the family of nuclear nations but at the same time will discharge our responsibility for the security of Canada by assuring that if war should come—which God forbid—Canadian armed forces will be in a position to defend with the best defenses available."

As the election campaign drew to a close, all signs pointed to a close contest. Public opinion polls generally indicated that the Liberals would score sharp gains in comparison with their resounding defeat in the 1958 election.

Wins Golf Crown After Eleven Years

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Henry Sigel Wilson of Philadelphia has regained the eastern women's amateur golf championship she won 11 years ago.

She birdied the last three holes Thursday at the Merion Golf Club to finish one stroke ahead of 23-year-old Tish Preuss of Pompano Beach, Fla., after trailing by two after the 13th hole.

Mrs. Wilson carded 41-37-78, three ladies par. Mrs. Preuss scored 40-39-79 and got a big hand at the 18th hole when she sank a 20-foot putt for a birdie.

Two Groups Probe Gilbert Theft Of Almost $2 Billion

NEW YORK (AP) — Both the Securities and Exchange Commission and the district attorney's office are looking into the affairs of Edward M. Gilbert, who flew to Brazil after acknowledging that he withdrew $1,953,000 without authorization from the E. L. Bruce Co.

Federal officials seized the personal files of Gilbert Thursday. He resigned as president and director of Bruce, a flooring manufacturer, before he left the country for Rio de Janeiro.

At the same time the office of Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said it was looking into all phases of Gilbert's far-ranging financial activities.

NEED MORE DATA

"So far we have barely scratched the surface," said Jerome Kidder, assistant district attorney, in charge of the frauds bureau. "We can't say anything until we see the checks, documents and books."

Kidder said no criminal action has been taken against Gilbert. "At the moment we are not in a position to extradite him even if we could locate him," he said.

Gilbert, 38, has remained incommunicado in Rio, with no one seeming to know his exact whereabouts. Gilbert reportedly has contacted a Brazilian lawyer.

Brazil currently has no effective extradition treaty with the United States.

To whom Gilbert made out the checks, and for what purpose, remains a mystery.

HAD CELOTEX STOCK

However, E. L. Bruce Jr., who has taken over as president of the firm, said he believed Gilbert used the money to protect his interest in Celotex Corp.

Gilbert had been one of the largest stockholders in Celotex, a manufacturer of building materials. He had been seeking to merge Celotex with the Bruce company.

Gilbert's withdrawal of E. L. Bruce funds came to light last Tuesday when the company said he voluntarily disclosed the unauthorized withdrawals and resigned.

Several hours later he was on a plane bound for Rio.

Gilbert's wife, Rhoda, 29, from whom he has been estranged, had not been questioned in the case.

Syracuse end Walt Sweeney, now a 225-pound senior from Cohasset, Mass., caught nine passes for 137 yards last season.

BRITONS SEEK WIGHTMAN CUP

LONDON (AP)—Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., carries the brunt of the lead today as America's top women tennis players open defense of the Wightman Cup against a determined British challenge.

The British girls are seeking to regain some of the stature they lost a year ago when the Americans won six of seven matches to take the cup in Chicago.

Miss Hard opens today's competition against Ann Haydon, Britain's hottest player.

Miss Hard will also play in Saturday's opening singles match against Christine Truman, who scored Britain's only Wightman Cup victory last year. Miss Truman opposes Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of Chula Vista, Calif., in today's second singles match. In doubles play, Margaret du Pont of Joseph, Ore., and Margaret Varner of Wilmington, Del., oppose Deirdre Cati and Elizabeth Starkie.

The club was in charge of the annual solicitations in the community for the cancer fund drive conducted last month. Mrs. Kent E. Daum reported that $707.93 was received for the fund, a larger amount than collected last year.

Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner, club advisor, installed the following new officers: President, Mrs. Kent E. Daum; first vice president, Mrs. Paul F. Boller; second vice president, Mrs. Bernard G. Kebil; recording secretary, Miss Shirley Leister; assistant secretary, Mrs. Joseph McMaisters; treasurer, Miss Nancy Ooster; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Robert W. Hall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Malcolm B. Shadle; historian, Mrs. Conrad C. Hull. The new officers will assume their duties at the next regular meeting of the club on Wednesday, September 12.

Injury-Ridden Braves Improve

MILWAUKEE (AP) — After struggling along through weeks of injuries and illness, the Milwaukee Braves are healthy again and figure they're ready to make a move in the National League race.

"We're showing definite signs of coming into our own," Manager Birdie Tebbetts said Thursday after the Braves defeated the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers 7-1 to capture a series two games to one.

"Some of our hitters are starting to hit the ball and our pitching has been good, in fact tremendous in the three games with the Dodgers," Tibbets said.

"We've been virtually ravaged by injuries and illness since the start of the season, but there's still plenty of time," he added. "We have 101 games left and if we put everything together we still can do it."

INGE PLAY POSTPONED

NEW YORK (AP) — "Natural Affections," a new play by William Inge, is now scheduled for Broadway arrival next October. Originally it was on the Robert Whitehead-Roger L. Stevens agenda for spring debut. Shelley Winters is set to star in the drama, and Harold Clurman will direct.

Many committee reports were heard and new officers installed at the June meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown held on Wednesday evening in the social room of the Eagles Home, W. King St. The gathering could not be held outdoors as previously planned due to the weather. Thirty-one members and five visitors were in attendance.

The club was in charge of the annual solicitations in the community for the cancer fund drive conducted last month. Mrs. Kent E. Daum reported that $707.93 was received for the fund, a larger amount than collected last year.

Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner, club advisor, installed the following new officers: President, Mrs. Kent E. Daum; first vice president, Mrs. Paul F. Boller; second vice president, Mrs. Bernard G. AWARD CAMPSHIPS

Miss Janet Phillips, retiring president, presided and called for the reports of Mrs. Jay C. Showaker, retiring secretary, and Mrs. Harold Study, retiring treasurer.

It was announced that the international convention of Woman's Clubs will be held on June 25 to 29 in Washington, D. C., at the Sheraton Hotel; fifth annual conference of the Pennsylvania Woman's Clubs will be held on July 14 to 21 in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Warren H. Wisotzky, cheer committee chairman, read "thank you" notes from Mrs. Donald C. Feeder and Mrs. Richard N. Greenholt, who recently became new mothers, for gifts of baby shoes; from Mrs. Woodrow D. Crabb and Mrs. W. Richard Marshman, who were hospitalized for planters. Nine pairs of baby shoes and five planters were sent by the club during the past year.

Miss Phillips, Mrs. Daum, Mrs. Boller, Mrs. Study and Mrs. Robert Hall represented the club in the community Memorial Day parade. Gadget book orders were received and should be given as soon as possible to Mrs. Greenholt. Mrs. Robert Margret reported on the spring repairs made on the Tot-Lot. Mrs. Boller gave a resume on the proceedings at the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs held in May in Pittsburgh. Miss Phillips, Mrs. Daum and Mrs. Kebil attended the convention along with Mrs. Boller. The project of the junior clubs of the state federation for the next two years will be the Olympics funds.

Darlene Hollinger of St. John's Lutheran Church and Allen Ozminski of St. Aloysius Catholic Church have been chosen to be the recipients of the club's payment for a week each at church camp this summer.

REPORTS ON PROJECTS

There was a discussion on providing transportation to Gettysburg for two local children suffering from cerebral palsy. The trips will be made on Wednesday and Friday of each week. An available list of volunteers from the Woman's Community Club will be provided to assist with the transportation if needed.

The scholarship given by the club to a student in the advanced years of college study will be presented at the beginning of the second semester instead of in the fall. Mrs. Thomas E. Craig reported on the recent of the club to the Adams County Home, when gifts were taken for the guests there. Letters of thanks were read from the special education classes in the local joint school system, for whom the club paid for the admission cost to the Gettysburg Wax Museum. It was decided not to sell cook books as a fund raising project.

A letter was read from the local VFW post and auxiliary concerning volunteers to have their blood typed and their names placed on a donor list. If a sufficient number show interest in this project, the bloodmobile will visit the community. There was a report by Mrs. Boller on the barbershop chorus program cosponsored by the Jaycees and club last Saturday.

HONOR MISS PHILLIPS

Mrs. Jack E. Rebert and Mrs. Bernard Kebil, co-chairmen, Mrs. Dean W. Bankert and Mrs. William Grove will investigate the possibility of the club's conducting a booth at the local firemen's carnival. It was agreed not to hold a family picnic this summer. Mrs. Kebil offered the use of her camera to the club historian. Members were reminded of the final payment of dues. Mrs. Kebil and Mrs. Harold R. Hand were appointed to serve as auditors. The retiring president gave her annual report. It was decided to sponsor two block parties a month this summer with the various standing committees in charge.

A past president's pin and corsage were presented to Miss Phillips, who presented the gavel to Mrs. Daum. The new president announced the following meetings: Outgoing and incoming standing committee chairmen at her home when Mrs. Donna Jones was declared the white elephant. On Prince St., Tuesday, June 19, at 8 p.m.; executive board at the president's home on Monday, June 25, at 8 p.m.

Guests introduced on Wednesday were Mrs. Donna Jones, Mrs. Lester Tuttle, Mrs. Marvin Breighner and Misses Jane and Jean Keefe. The jackpot was won by Mrs. Warren Wisotzky.

A white elephant party was enjoyed during the social hour. Picnic style refreshments were served by the cheer committee.

There was a discussion on providing transportation to Gettysburg for two local children suffering from cerebral palsy. The trips will be made on Wednesday and Friday of each week. An available list of volunteers from the Woman's Community Club will be provided to assist with the transportation if needed.

The scholarship given by the club to a student in the advanced years of college study will be presented at the beginning of the second semester instead of in the fall. Mrs. Thomas E. Craig reported on the recent of the club to the Adams County Home, when gifts were taken for the guests there. Letters of thanks were read from the special education classes in the local joint school system, for whom the club paid for the admission cost to the Gettysburg Wax Museum. It was decided not to sell cook books as a fund raising project.

A letter was read from the local VFW post and auxiliary concerning volunteers to have their blood typed and their names placed on a donor list. If a sufficient number show interest in this project, the bloodmobile will visit the community. There was a report by Mrs. Boller on the barbershop chorus program cosponsored by the Jaycees and club last Saturday.

HONOR MISS PHILLIPS

Mrs. Jack E. Rebert and Mrs. Bernard Kebil, co-chairmen, Mrs. Dean W. Bankert and Mrs. William Grove will investigate the possibility of the club's conducting a booth at the local firemen's carnival. It was agreed not to hold a family picnic this summer. Mrs. Kebil offered the use of her camera to the club historian. Members were reminded of the final payment of dues. Mrs. Kebil and Mrs. Harold R. Hand were appointed to serve as auditors. The retiring president gave her annual report. It was decided to sponsor two block parties a month this summer with the various standing committees in charge.

A past president's pin and corsage were presented to Miss Phillips, who presented the gavel to Mrs. Daum. The new president announced the following meetings: Outgoing and incoming standing committee chairmen at her home when Mrs. Donna Jones was declared the white elephant. On Prince St., Tuesday, June 19, at 8 p.m.; executive board at the president's home on Monday, June 25, at 8 p.m.

Guests introduced on Wednesday were Mrs. Donna Jones, Mrs. Lester Tuttle, Mrs. Marvin Breighner and Misses Jane and Jean Keefe. The jackpot was won by Mrs. Warren Wisotzky.

A white elephant party was enjoyed during the social hour. Picnic style refreshments were served by the cheer committee.

DAN BLOCKER HALE, HEARTY AT 260 POUNDS

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Amid a nation of calorie-counters, "Bonanza" Dan Blocker stands out like a monument. He's 260 pounds of unabashed bulk.

None of that safflower oil and gluten bread for Dan. Why should he ruin his mealticket?

Yet when I met up with the towering Texan, he was lunching on cottage cheese salad and gelatin. "Picked up eight pounds on P.A.'s," he explained, referring to person appearances, any television star's bread and butter.

"Trouble with those tours is everybody wants to feed you. They give you a big breakfast and a big lunch and then a big dinner, thinking they're doing you a favor. You feel like a heel not to eat."

Dan admitted he would probably take off 50 pounds if he gave up the beer and booze. But he hasn't yet found enough reason. And he'd be in danger of destroying the image of the big, blustery Hoss Cartwright on NBC's Sunday night western.

Health problems? He's got none. Even got a top rating in an insurance physical exam recently.

EXCEPTION BY ARMY

"Can hardly remember when I didn't weigh at least 200 pounds," he said. "Never worried me, though my folks thought about it. I guess. Once when I was about 10 and weighed 200, they put me in the car and took me to a pediatrician in Lubbock, Texas."

"He examined me and said, 'There's nothing wrong with this boy; he's just going to be a big boy of a gun.'"

The Army gave him the same bill of health, even though at 310 pounds he was well over the usual limit. "We'll make an exception in your case," said the doctor, and Dan replied, "Thanks a bunch."

"Bonanza" is now ending its third and best season, and the company is already grinding out a fourth. Dan figures it could go another year, perhaps two at the most.

PENNSYLVANIA TO PLAY HOST TO GOVERNORS

by DAVE LEHERR
HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania is just about ready to raise the curtain on one of its most lavish productions in years—the 54th annual Governors' Conference at Hershey.

The $100,000 event will feature an all-star cast of hundreds, including President John F. Kennedy and two former chiefs of state, Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

Also on the program is an early American dinner at York, the nation's capital; a tour of the famous Civil War battlefield at Gettysburg; a Pennsylvania Dutch festival; and an elaborate state dinner.

OPENS JUNE 30

Certain time for the five-day affair is Saturday, June 30. Governors from 49 of the 50 states, plus those of Samoa, Guam and the Virgin Islands, will be the honored guests.

All the arrangements are being made by the host state committee, headed by Walter Giesy, executive secretary to Pennsylvania's Gov. David L. Lawrence, and Harold Swenson, deputy secretary of the state Commerce Department.

The state will provide everything for the governors from luxury automobiles for traveling, to baby sitters for their children.

The dignitaries will start converging on this small, but famous central Pennsylvania town June 29.

The governors, their wives and children will have headquarters at the Hotel Hershey.
